WALL Begins Another Energetic Year

Dear WALL Members

Summer is almost over and most importantly, WALL classes will start soon. The lineup of this semester's classes promises to be another banner year of great classes at WALL.

Whether you are interested in the History of Heaven and Hell with returning instructor Richard Davies, or you want to hear about Great Explorations and Expeditions with newcomer Sloan Oliver, we have them here at WALL.

With our great team of members on the Curriculum Committee and some suggestions from WALL members, WALL continues to offer an abundance of thought provoking, stimulating, and interesting classes. We welcome your suggestions and input, and if you would like to become a member of the Curriculum Committee, please contact Ed Brewton at brewtoned@gmail.com.

As we energetically work toward filling the classes for the Spring Semester, we are also planning for social events that include our annual Holiday Drop In and the 10th anniversary of WALL that will be

WALL is grateful to each and everyone of you who have been a part of its success. As many of you may know, we are a volunteer organization. Many of our Charter members, those who have been here from the start, serve on committees and assist in many other ways. Without you, our members, we could not have made it so far.

We also have numerous members who came later and became enthusiastic supporters of WALL. Without them and you, we could not accomplish so many of the things that we do. We have other committees that need volunteers as well. If you are interested in volunteering, contact Vince Coughlin at vince.coughlin0826@gmail.com.

See you in class,

One of the highlights of 2019 was the establishment of a WALL Scholarship for a rising senior at Wesleyan College. Biology major Kristen Kelly, was our first recipient. The scholarship is 1,000 dollars and is awarded based on need and upon recommendation from the Wesleyan office of financial aid. Vince Coughlin awarded the scholarship for this year and we look forward to many future recipients.

The scholarship has been renamed the Anita Greenwald Memorial Scholarship Fund. Thank you to all who donated to Wesleyan in memory of Anita. Anita was very supportive of the WALL program and an inspiration to all. She will be dearly missed.
